THINGS TO THINK ABOUT:

Sometimes immediately after a great victory, (Abram had defeated 4 kings and taken back their spoils), we can feel cast down, fearful or defeated. Abram may have expected the defeated kings would regroup and come upon him. The LORD in loving kindness and tender mercies comforts him, "Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield." How good the LORD is to His own!

Look beyond our daily trials and focus on His promises, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Heb 13:5).

We admire Abram for believing God Who had promised him an innumerable seed when at that time he was childless!
